PSALM 30:1-5

A psalm. A song. For the dedication of the temple Of David.

I will exalt you, Lord,
for you lifted me out of the depths
and did not let my enemies gloat over me.
Lord my God, I called to you for help,
and you healed me.
You, Lord, brought me up from the realm of the dead;
you spared me from going down to the pit.
Sing the praises of the Lord, you his faithful people;
praise his holy name.
For his anger lasts only a moment,
but his favor lasts a lifetime;
weeping may stay for the night,
but rejoicing comes in the morning.

ROMANS 8:35-39 (NIV)

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written:
“For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”
No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Greetings and Announcements

*Entrance of the Cross

Organ Prelude Presto from Organ Concerto No. 5 George Frideric Handel

Choral Call to Worship Cry Out and Shout Kanute Nystedt

*Invocation

Lord, Lord, we say, Lord, Lord, with our eyes to the heavens, but you are not to be found in the skies, Heavenly Father, but in the unloved, the suffering, the marginalized, the oppressed, the forgotten. We turn our eyes away from the skies and toward our sisters and brothers and find you. As your Son washed the feet of your disciples so we seek to serve your children in every circumstance, no matter what the world might think. Lord, Lord, now we see you. Lord, Lord, now we serve you. Amen.
